LITTLE THINGS THAT COUNT.

A goodly kine is a Hillis thing,
With your hand on the door to ge,
With your hand on the door to ge,
Bull takes the vesson out of the uting
Hall to be the vesson out of the thing
That you made us how a general thing
That you made us how a general thing
That you made us how a first
A kine of greving is arrest and rare.
After the toil of day,
And it smooth the furrows plowed by care,
And it smooth the furrows plowed by care,
In the years that have four a range of fair.
In this years that have four a regist of fair.

Tis n little thing to say, "You are kind—I love you, my dear," each eight, But it sends a thrill through your heart, I find.

For love is tender, love is blind,
As we climb life's ragged height.

We share each other for love's care We inke, but we do not give. It seems so each some and to bless, But we do!e the love gradigingly less Till 'tis bitter and hard to five
